

Recovery Resource Council's Community Restitution Program provides a convenient way to earn needed service hours through the selection and completion of various service projects. The individual found guilty of the crime is the person solely responsible for complying with all court-mandated sentences. Therefore, it is our policy to speak to this person when contacted concerning this program.

Instructions:

Select any combination of projects necessary to complete the number of hours you need. Each project may be completed only once. The maximum possible credit hours that can be earned for each project is shown. Maximum credit is given only to projects completed as explained. To ensure you receive enough credit hours, it is recommended that you complete a little more work than needed.

Carefully read each project's instructions before you begin. If you have any questions, call 214.522.8600 ext. 276.

All reports must be typewritten. A "typewritten page" is defined as an 8½" x 11" page with margins of 1" on all sides, 12 pt. Times New Roman, double spaced. Projects not formatted in this manner will not receive full credit.

Do Not Plagiarize Credit will not be given for projects containing "cut & pasted" information. Projects are electronically checked for originality.

An administrative fee of $3 per mandated hour is assessed for participation in this program. (Example: 8 hours – $24; 12 hours – $36) The fee can be paid online and is due when the completed projects are submitted for consideration.

Project Completion: Steps

- Completed projects are turned in to the Council for review — not the courts.
- Once you have completed your projects you will email them to:
d.futrell@recoverycouncil.org along with a sign in sheet that can be found HERE.
- Then you can make your payment through our website by clicking the "Ways to Give" tab at the top of the homepage.
- Upon review, you will be given a certificate of completion to be taken back to the court / judge.
